Questions & Answers

Q1: In regards to the financial stability question for providing prior year's tax return, [REDACTED] Adult Day Services is part of [REDACTED] Retirement Community which is a large continuing care retirement community.

With that, would it be permissible to send you the audited section of our financials for the prior year as it pertains to adult day services or do would you prefer the consolidated tax return for the entire community? The tax return will not break out adult day services specifically.

A1: Please submit the audited section of your financials for the prior year as it pertains to the adult day services and the consolidated tax return for the entire community.
