Description:

Homebound Delivery - The Dayton Metro Library provides this service to adults who have difficulty getting out. Call the Outreach Services staff at (937) 496-8956 to request Homebound Delivery. They will take your requests and set up a delivery time. Deliveries are made every three weeks, they'll bring as much as you can use in that time. They will pick up whatever you are ready to return and bring a new bag of library materials every three weeks. They'll bring anything you can borrow from the Dayton Metro Library to your door, including regular and large type books, DVDs and videos, music, books on tape and CDs. Whatever your favorite authors, subjects or genres, the Dayton Metro Library has something for you!
