Adult Protective Services

Purpose

Adult Protective Services are provided to the elderly who are in danger of harm and / or are unable to protect themselves. Greene County Department of Job and Family Services is mandated to investigate and evaluate all reports of suspected abuse, neglect, and exploitation of adults age 60 and over.

Adults who experience abuse, neglect or exploitation are offered supportive services, as available, for protection and self-sufficiency.

Reporting

To report suspected neglect, abuse, or exploitation of an at-risk adult in Greene County during normal working hours, please call (937) 562-6000. Contact local police after business hours.
