For over 25 years, Dove House has been working to restore safety, dignity and hope to women whose lives have been marred by domestic violence, one of the most pervasive threats to women's safety and well-being both nationally and locally. Dove House operates two protective shelters in Butler County, Ohio, one in Hamilton and one in Middletown. In addition, Dove House provides a 24-hour crisis hotline, advocacy for victims, training to increase self-sufficiency, and a survivors' support group. Dove House provides educational and outreach programs to both educate the community about the cycle of domestic violence and to give victims the support and courage to seek help.
